

The library staff is dedicated to providing students the support and resources needed for successful, scholarly university studies. We are here to field your questions, guide your research process, help with finding appropriate resources, and provide study/meeting spaces for both your individual and group activities.

Library Cards

Library cards are issued during Orientation and throughout the year as needed. Privileges begin upon issuance, providing access to both physical materials and electronic resources. Library cards are valuable assets warranting the same protection given other online accounts. For your protection, please report lost/stolen cards as soon as possible.
